Presidents Monthly Report April 2024

Dear Members,

Another Pennant season has ended, and it was great to see our Division 4 South team promoted to Division 3

after winning the Grand Final. Our Wednesday Premier League team made the Preliminary Final only to be beaten by Hawthorn but nevertheless a great achievement. The support at the Finals could not be bettered. I know of no other club that supports it's teams like PNBC.

Some teams have had a tough time this year but I am confident that next season will be a very good one.

Congratulations to all our players who played Pennants this year.

As you know we hosted three Grand Finals in March, and I would like to thank all our volunteers who helped on the day. You did a magnificent job.

Congratulations to the three players who represented us in the All-Abilities Championships recently—John Swarbrick, Vanessa Wildy, and Matt Ainsworth. Vanessa has been nominated as one of three for the Bowls SA Para Player of the year. Well done Vanessa.

The Night Owls season has now concluded, and it was another good year. Thanks to all our volunteers who made this happen.

Our Social season is now up and running every Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday. Lists are on the board or ring the club during opening times to register. The new Scroungers format is being well received on Wednesdays.

Please do your best to support these days as it is so important we keep things ticking over financially as the bills don't stop coming in and nothing is getting any cheaper as we all know. A good example for the Club being the Bowls SA Affiliation fees which are going up over 4%.

It was great to see such a good turnout for the Aus v Poms Day and Patron's Day for Dennis Lynch. A big thanks to the organisers and all people who volunteered on the days and sponsors Alpha Box and Dice (for the Ashes clash).

A big thank you also to all those who supported the Easter raffle which was a huge success.

Works on A green will be commencing this month.

Work is being done on the plan for the bar upgrade.

Two things that I need to mention.

We ask that members refrain from swearing. This is offensive to a lot of members and visitors.

The second is Smoking. This must be always in the designated areas.

This will be my last report before the AGM on May 5th. This will be followed by the Club Presentations and then a BBQ. I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the Board Members for their support, hard work, and their outstanding service to the Club.

Thank you to all our volunteers and our Sponsors for 2023/2024.

Upcoming events:

Social Bowls: Wednesday / Thursday / Saturday.

100 club draw Saturday April 27th

Friday Night Dinners every Friday from 5-30pm. On Friday May 3rd we will have background keyboard music with John's Classic Hits and the introduction of a new raffle idea! Please try to support.

AGM and Presentation Sunday May 5th

Saturday night May 18th "The Honey Badgers Band" at PNBC.

BPL Cup Sunday May 19th at PNBC

All Abilities State Pairs Championships at PNBC May 25th and 26th

Sunday afternoon of music with the "Fahrenheit 451" June 9th 1pm to 5pm. Doors open 12 noon

Christmas in July with "Stix n Specs band" July 7th 1pm to 5pm. Doors open 12 noon.

Vice Presidents Monthly Report April 2024

Thank you for your support during the year as Vice-President.

There is a lot which happens behind the scenes and it is important that President John Ainsworth and the Board are acknowledged for their contributions. John's leadership and dedication to his role go well "above and beyond" for the benefit of our Club.

The AGM will consider the outcomes of the review of our Constitution. There are approximately forty (40) recommended amendments which will be "proposed" in a manner which is time efficient and clear to Members.

The Constitution protects Members rights, establishes the rules for Club Management, finances, accountability, disciplinary matters and so on.

Changes and amendments to the Constitution require 75% of eligible voters to agree for them to be adopted.

The repairs to A Green's banks and replacement of shelters will have begun before you read this. These are urgent works so please understand there will be some inconveniences which we are confident can be managed.

The Board is hopeful for a big turn out for the AGM, with Club Champions presentations and a BBQ to follow.

Regards, Peter.

Attention PNBC Members

On Pennant Days, could all playing members with Disabled Badges who are leaving their cars at the Club, whilst playing away games, please keep the Disabled Bays clear for players from visiting teams. Also, of course, our own members who might be playing at home.

Thank you for your kind consideration as this is due to the limited availability of Disabled Bays at the front of the clubhouse.

A SCOTTISH LOVE STORY

A young Scottish lad and lass were sitting on a low stone wall, holding hands, gazing out over the loch.

For several minutes they sat silently. Then finally the girl looked at the boy and said, "A penny for your thoughts, Angus."

"Well, uh, I was thinkin... perhaps it's about time for a wee kiss."

The girl blushed and leaned over and kissed him lightly on the cheek.

Then he blushed. The two turned once again to gaze out over the loch.

Minutes passed and the girl spoke again. "Another penny for your thoughts, Angus?"

"Well, uh, I was thinkin' perhaps it's noo about time for a wee cuddle." The girl blushed, she leaned over and cuddled him for a few seconds. Then Blushed.

And the two turned once again to gaze out over the loch, after a while again she said another penny for your thoughts, Angus."

Well, uh, I was thinkin perhaps it's about time you let me put my hand on your leg." The girl blushed, then took his hand and put it on her knee.. Then he blushed.

Then the two turned once again to gaze out over the loch before the girl spoke again. Anther penny for you thoughts, Angus,"

The young man glanced down with a furled brow. "Well, noo," he said, 'my thoughts are a wee bit more serious this time.'

Really said the lass in a whisper filled with anticipation.

"Aye," said the lad nodding.

The girl looked away in shyness, began to blush, and bit her lip in anticipation of the next ultimate request.

Then he said, Dae ye nae think it's about time ye paid me the three pennies?"

A woman and her 12-year-old son were riding in a taxi in Detroit. It was raining and all the prostitutes were standing under awnings.

"Mom," said the boy, "what are all those women doing?"

"They're waiting for their husbands to get off work," she replied

The taxi driver turns around and says, "Geez lady, why don't you tell him the truth? They're hookers, boy! They have sex with men for money."

The little boy's eyes get wide and he says, "Is that true Mom?"

His mother, glaring hard at the driver, answers "Yes."

After a few minutes the kid asks, "Mom, if those women have babies, what happens to them?"

She said, "Most of them become taxi drivers."

" BUT SURELY THE CHILD'S NAME SHOULD BE GERALD, NOT GERALDINE ? "

" NO VICAR, YOU'VE GOT HOLD OF MY LITTLE FINGER! "

Port Noarlunga Bowling Club Patron's Day

The day attracted over 60 Bowlers of which made 16 teams consisting of a couple of triples and the rest teams of fours and organised by Ron Howard. There were two games of 15 ends each with a short break between games. With everyone bringing a plate the day was finished off with quite a nice banquet.

THE POM'S WIN AGAIN

Another great Ashes contest and after a few years of coming second, the Pom's pulled off another great win making it two in a row, Winning 198 to 184

The games captained by John Ainsworth for the Pom's and Rick Hilder for the Aussies. The match was played over 21 ends with short break after the 11th end was played in great spirit with plenty of friendly rivalry followed by a meal and capped off with a raffle with a host of great prizes.

Well done to the organisers Rick & John and crew and all the ladies in the kitchen.

A truly great day and a credit to the Port Noarlunga Bowling Club

ON THE FUNNY SIDE

A Senior Prenuptial Agreement

An elderly couple reaching their 70's are about to get married, but before they say their vows, the woman wanted to talk.

She said: 'I want to keep my house.'

He Said: 'That's fine with me.'

She said: I Want to keep my Cadillac.'

He said: 'That's fine with me.'

She said 'And I want to have sex 6 times a week.'

He Said: 'Put me down for Fridays.'

The Silly, Hilarious and Funny Side of DIY

Rosie Hall buys a self-assembly, flat-pack, cupboard from her local Homebase store. Reaching home Rosie reads the instructions carefully, counts the pieces then assembles the cupboard in the bedroom. It looks really great and she is delighted.

Now, Rosie lives near a railway line and as the train passes by the cupboard collapses. Undaunted by this misfortune she re-reads the instructions and reassembles the cupboard. Once more, another train passes and the whole cupboard collapses again.

Rosie now frustrated and thinking that she must have done something "wrong" re-re-reads the instructions and re-re-assembles the cupboard. Shortly, a train passes and the whole cupboard collapses yet again for the 3rd time.

Rosie is now fed up, cross and rather angry so she 'phones the customer service department. She is told that this is quite impossible and that they'll send along a fitter to take a look.

The fitter arrives and assembles the cupboard. Again, a train passes and the cupboard collapses. Completely baffled by this unexpected event, the fitter decides to reassemble the cupboard and sit inside it to see whether he can find out what causes the cupboard to collapse. At this point, Rosie's husband comes home, sees the cupboard and says, 'Oh, that's a splendid looking cupboard,' and he opens it to look inside.

The fitter, who had been wondering how to explain his position in Rosie's bedroom cupboard, blurts out, 'You probably won't believe me, but I'm standing here waiting for a train.'

The Deaf Debt Collector:

The Mafia was looking for a new man to make weekly collections from all the private businesses subject to their protection racket.

As they were feeling the heat from the Police, they decided to use someone deaf for the job. If someone deaf gets caught, they figured that he wouldn't be able to communicate easily with the Police.

In his first week on the job the deaf debt collector picks up over $50,000. That's a lot of money he thinks and the deaf debt collector's greed gets the better of him. He decides to keep the money and he stashes it in a safe place.

However, it's not long before the Mafia realises that the collection is late and they send out a couple of heavies to look for the deaf debt collector.

They soon find him and they ask the deaf debt collector what he's done with the money. The problem is that deaf debt collector can't communicate with them either, so the Mafia heavies drag him off to an interpreter.

They get to a sign language interpreter and the leading Mafioso then says, "I want ya to ask him where da money is."

So the interpreter signs, "Where's the money?"

The deaf debt collector tries to bluff his way out of his dilemma by saying, "I don't know what they're talking about."

The interpreter looks at the Mafioso and says, "He's saying he doesn't know what you're talking about."

The Mafioso reaches into his coat and pulls out a .44 Remington Magnum handgun which he points at the forehead of the deaf debt collector and then with real menace in his voice he says to the interpreter, "Ask him where da money is, and tell him I won't be askin' again."

So the interpreter immediately signs, "Where's the money? He says he won't ask again and I think he's serious."

At this point, the deaf debt collector's nerve goes and he signs, "The $50,000 is in Central Park, hidden in the third tree stump on the left by the gate near 72nd Street on Central Park West, and close to Strawberry Fields."

Getting impatient, the Mafioso looks at the interpreter and asks, "What did he say?"

The interpreter looks at the Mafioso and says, "He says he still doesn't know what you're talking about, he thinks you're an idiot, and he doesn't think you've got the balls to pull the trigger!"

Best Friends

Man is a woman's best friend.

He will reassure her when she feels insecure and comfort her after a bad day.

He will inspire her to do things she never a thought she could do; to live without fear and forget regret.

He will enable her to express her deepest emotions and give in to her most intimate desires.

He will make sure she always feels that she's the most beautiful woman in the room and will enable her to be confident, sexy, seductive, and invincible.

No wait..... sorry..... I'm thinking of wine.

It's wine that does all that.

Sorry
